PROGRESS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOL—HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENT ESTABLISHED. - We are glad to learn that the Trustees of the Public School, at their meeting on Monday evening, resolved to establish a High School Department immediately. They will employ a male teacher, a graduate from College, at a liberal salary, thus giving more time to Mr. Root to attend to the work of a principal. The school has been steadily improving since its new organization in the present building; and this step, if well carried out, will advance it im-

WARREN COOKER. - Whoever invents any thing to aid the cook and alleviate the anxiety of the housekeeper respecting her forthcoming dinner, deserves well of his fellows, for he is a practical philanthropist. We had heard so much of the Warren

Cooker; that we could not feel at ease in our conscience fill we had supplied our better-half with one for her kitchen. We
